

Economic Vitality Award

The City of Lompoc’s Economic Development Committee (EDC) started a new program in March 2014 designed to recognize local businesses that are launching Lompoc into the 21st Century. The Economic Vitality Award, “EVA”, is awarded monthly to Lompoc Valley businesses. A certificate of award and window decal (to the left) is presented to the winners to display in their businesses.

Committee Members:

- Maria Hall, Chair
- Jeremy Ball, Vice Chair
- Gilda Cordova, Executive Member
- Tom Davidson, Executive Member
- Carol Newsome, Executive Member
- Naishadh Buch
- Mary Day
- Richard Drago
- Felix Hernandez
- Henry Gallina
- Mary Hawes
- Allyssa Imano
- Brett Lauter
- Ken Ostini
- Mandy Pascua
- Don Pommerville
- Cecilia Ramos
- Sue Schuyler
- Luis Servin
- Rob Traylor

Staff:

- Teresa Gallavan,
Economic Development Director/
Assistant City Manager
- Jasmine McGinty,
Development Program Specialist I

As part of the nomination, the EDC considers many factors such as: has the business implemented new technology, improved service, or updated its physical appearance? Has a business relocated to Lompoc, filled an empty building, or started a new industry?

The Committee wants to acknowledge Lompoc Valley businesses that have demonstrated economic leadership in the community by weathering local downturns, contributed to the success of other businesses and non-profit agencies, or been pioneers of industries in the community.

Please join us in recognizing the Lompoc Valley businesses that are leading our community towards success and contributing to the wonderful place we call home. Fill out the form below and return it with your utility payment or email your suggestions to lompocedc@gmail.com
